A crowning achievement, The Complete Lyrics wraps Taupin's lyrics (and the -- thankfully -- lingering haunts of Elton's melodies) with some of the most beautiful art ever to accompany pop and rock writing. The only flaw lies in the editors' failure to check the accuracy of certain lyrics. Nevertheless, The Complete Lyrics reminds fans and critics alike of the indelible mark John and Taupin have made on twentieth-century music.

Seeing BT's naked lyrics without EJ's music reminds one that EJ's right when he says, "Without Bernie Taupin, there wouldn't have been an Elton John" (like the one we know)!

Love this book and it shows the genius of the two and the race with which they could create such amazing works. They are only surpassed by Lennon and McCartney for excellence.

This book shows the extreme works of Elton John and Bernie Taupin. The beautiful pictures within the book make the book. Elton John has worked hard to get where he is at now, and he will soon be better as he grows older. I suggest this book for any Elton John lover!

Beautifully written and illustrated with fabulous photos. A treasure!
