Customer Reviews

I bought this for my daughter who is our piano player. She is at an intermediate level and did not find the music too difficult for her. The book itself is nice, with color photos from the movie. She is very happy with it.

The book is very true to the soundtrack. The arrangements are not too difficult and are in easy keys. My two sons sang "When Christmas Comes to Town" at several family Christmas parties. It was always a big hit.

This is a great book to have if you want to play the songs from the movie. It contains all of the music in the Polar Express movie, except for White Christmas (I don't know why this song is missing, maybe the publisher couldn't work something out with Irving Berlin's estate).

Really enjoyed this last Christmas season. I'm about intermediate level player and was able to play most selections, a few need more attention so hope to be ready by this season. Arrangements are very nice.
